

Program IMOB 5th and 6th May 2017

5th Friday

09:30 – 10:20 Registration

10:25 – 10:30 Welcome

10:30 – 12:00 Session 1

- Red Cell Salvage quality and efficiency

Prof Jonathan. H. Waters

- Quality of Wash blood “What are we looking for?”

Darryl McMillan

- Audience Survey; What is the current thoughts on the quality testing of returned wash blood.

Darryl McMillan

Lunch - 12:00 – 13:00

13:00 – 14:30 Session 2

- Red Cell Salvage in obstetrics surgery

Dr Jonathan. H. Waters

- Treatment perspective - Postpartum Hemorrhage

Dr. Bruce Cartwright

- Discussion

Afternoon tea 14:30 – 15:30

15:30 – 17:00 Session 3

- External Qc Testing for TEG and Rotem

Ms Roslyn Bonar Senior Scientist Hematology (RCPAQAP)

- Red Cell Salvage in Pediatric surgery

Mr Killian O'Shaughnessy

- Audience Survey- Current practices in Intra operative blood management.

Darryl McMillan

Close 17:00 Trade Area Cocktail Hour 17:00 - 18:00

Saturday 6th May

Registration 08:00 – 08:50

08:50 – 09:00 Welcome

09:00 – 10:30 Session 1

- Back to Basics: The Physiology and Pathophysiology of Blood Volume, Red Cell Mass, Plasma Volume and Hematocrit Regulation”

Prof. James Isbister

- Red Cell Salvage’s effects on hemostasis.

Prof Jonathan. H. Waters

- Discussion

10:30 – 11:00 Morning tea

11:00 – 12:30 Session 2

- “Ironing our iron in the 21st Century”

Prof. James Isbister

- Shock

Dr. Kerry Gunn

- Discussion

12:30 – 13:30 Lunch

13:30-15:00 Session 3

- Building systems to reduce blood use

Dr. Kerry Gunn

- Waste associated with the provision of blood

Prof Jonathan. H. Waters

15:00 – 15:30 Afternoon tea

15:30 – 17:00 Session 4

- Current Transfusion practices in Cardiac Perfusion-Collative database.

Prof Rob Baker

- Blood Conservation in Cardiac Surgery

Darryl McMillan

- Discussion

17:00 Closed

Please note that the organisers reserve the right to change topics and speakers without any prior notice.