Call for Submissions

Call for submissions
Deadline: 22nd of June 2020

Consider submitting an article for the next edition of the ANZCP Gazette to be published this July/August.

We encourage the submission of all perfusion related articles – large and small.

Types of submission include – but are not limited to the following:

- Did you attend a conference, a seminar or a webinar? Tell us about it.
- If you presented a paper or poster, consider the extra points and the renown you will gain if you also submit it to the Gazette.
- Published in a peer reviewed journal? Increase the article's readership and your local standing by reprinting it*.
- If you visited a company or another unit, what were your impressions and experiences?
- Has there been a thought-provoking case that you were involved in or has your unit trialed new technology?
- Seen the retirement of a co-worker or want your colleagues to know what has been happening with the people in your unit?
- Read any interesting perfusion related articles or books lately?
- Can you create a crossword puzzle or produce a multiple choice quiz?
- Do you feel strongly about something or have any words of wisdom?
- . . . and how has your unit been adapting to and coping during the COVID-19 pandemic?

The Gazette is also the perfect place to submit small studies, case studies or first time papers – see how it feel to have your article in print! Need a bit of assistance putting it together – we are here to help!

Be creative, become noticed, gain CPD points, earn some cash and add to your CV

[*Pending Journal approval; There are two cash awards for best original article]

Please submit all articles in Microsoft Word or .pdf format.

All questions or concerns related to the Gazette can be sent to gazette@anzcp.org or kieron.potger@health.nsw.gov.au
