

DAY 1

THURSDAY 08

This year's ANZCP ASM will include an expanded simulation offering, providing an engaging and practical learning experience for delegates across both ECMO and CPB.

Multiple, small group, simulation sessions will provide participants with the opportunity to explore key clinical themes including optimising perfusion management, troubleshooting, crisis management and communication in a realistic, interactive learning environment.

The simulation program will be carefully facilitated to meet key learning outcomes established by the Board and will be co-designed in collaboration with corporate facilitators. This collaborative approach will ensure that the sessions are clinically relevant, educationally robust and aligned with the practical realities of contemporary perfusion practice.

Each session will consist of two simulation blocks:

- 90-mins of CPB simulation
- 90-mins of ECMO simulation

	Simulation Sessions
10:00 - 13:00	CPB + ECMO
14:00 - 17:00	CPB + ECMO

14:30 – 15:30	Registration Open
Session 1 – Fireside Chats
15:30 – 17:30	1. Future direction of perfusion in Aus/NZ (Workforce Survey results) 2. Consumables Shortages (Cannulas) - How can we support each other? 3. State Liaison for Perfusion Contract Negotiations
17:30 – 19:30	ANZCP SOCIAL EVENT Drinks & Canapes on the Green

42ND ANNUAL SCIENTIFIC MEETING

DAY 2

FRIDAY 09

08:00 – 08:30	Registration Open
Session 2 – More of Who We Are
08:30 – 10:00	President's Welcome & Housekeeping (Annette Mazzone)
	ANZCP – Who are we, where do we need to go (Annette Mazzone)
	YM3 Perfusion Workforce Survey (Anna Yerondais)
	Keynote Presentation (Dafne Chianella)
	Global Perfusion Society (Scott Schnider)
10:00 – 10:30	Morning Tea – Friday
Session 3 - More than cells and circuits
10:30 – 12:30	Impact of MCS on the Biophysical Properties of Blood (Dr Antony McNamee)
	Pulsatile Flow in Cardiopulmonary Bypass: Where the Evidence Actually Stands (Prof Jon Fanning)
	Engineering the Next Generation of Mechanical Circulatory Support (Prof Shaun Gregory)
	'Would Sir like a shot of Mitochondria with ur Plegia?' (Prof John Fraser)
	Submitted Abstracts
12:30 – 13:30	Lunch – Friday
Session 4 – More Through Education
13:30 – 15:00	Student Abstracts
	Design of Workforce Integrated Learning and an Online Perfusion Program
	Creating Safe Spaces for Unsafe Things: Psychological Safety in Simulation (Ben Symon)
	High-Fidelity Perfusion Simulation for the Safe Implementation of CPB & Extracorporeal Life Support Technologies (Adam Roshan)
15:00 - 15:30	Afternoon Tea – Friday
Session 5 – AGM
15:30 - 17:00	ANZCP Annual General Meeting

42ND ANNUAL SCIENTIFIC MEETING

DAY 3

SATURDAY 10

Session 6 – More than small adults
08:30 – 10:00	Protocol Project, Toolkit, and the Standards and Guidelines for Pediatric and Congenital Perfusion Practice (Dafne Chianella)
	ANZ Congenital Outcomes Registry & Machine Learning
	Neurodevelopmental Outcomes in Individuals with Complex Congenital Heart Disease (Karen Eagleson)
	Submitted Abstracts
10:00 – 10:30	Morning Tea – Saturday
Session 7 - More for the future
10:30 – 12:30	Australia moving the goal posts in transplant medicine - stories from the cricket pitch to Chicago (Prof John Fraser)
	Your Registry, your future: the ANZCPR Transformation (Rona Steel)
	Submitted Abstracts
12:30 – 13:30	Lunch – Saturday
Session 8 - More than Bypass
13:30 – 15:00	Developments in MiECC, current clinical evidence, and perspectives for implementation in routine practice (Dr Adrian Bauer)
	The World's First Hyperbaric Oxygen Treatment While on ECMO
	Submitted Abstracts
	PIRS2 Updates
15:00 - 15:30	Afternoon Tea – Saturday
Session 9 – More for our teams
15:30 - 17:00	From Vancouver to the Austin: What leaving home taught me about becoming a better perfusionist
	Building Emotional Resilience and Training the Perfusion Trainer
	Panel Discussion: Leadership, Resilience and Wellbeing in Perfusion

42ND ANNUAL SCIENTIFIC MEETING

gala dinner

The Island Rooftop, Oceanview Room
6:30pm - 11:00pm

As the sun sets over the Gold Coast, celebrate the conclusion of the ANZCP 2026 ASM at our Gala Dinner on Saturday 10th October, hosted at the beautiful Island Rooftop.

Enjoy great food, celebrate excellence within our profession through the ANZCP Awards, and unwind with colleagues as we enjoy an evening of conversation, connection and celebration.
